How will your complaint be handled?

Grant County/Corre Caminos investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. The County will process complaints that are complete. Once a completed complaint is received, the County will review it to determine if it has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive a letter acknowledging receipt of the complaint and whether the County has jurisdiction to investigate the complaint.

The County will generally complete an investigation within 90 days from receipt of a complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, the County may contact you. Unless a longer period is specified by the County, you will have ten (10) days from the date of the request to send the requested information. If the requested information is not received, the County may administratively close the case. A case may also be administratively closed if you no longer wish to pursue it.

After the investigation is complete, the County will send you a letter summarizing the results of the investigation, stating the findings, and advising of any corrective action to be taken as a result of the investigation. If you disagree with the County's determination, you may request reconsideration by submitting a request in writing to the County within seven (7) days after the date of the letter, stating with specificity the basis for the reconsideration. The County will notify you of the decision either to accept or reject the request for reconsideration within ten (10) days. In cases where reconsideration is granted, the County will issue a determination letter to the complainant upon completion of the reconsideration review.
